Dear Mr. Brown:

This letter is in further response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated August 13, 2018 for access to George W. Bush Presidential records pertaining to Justice Kavanaugh. FOIA requests for Bush Presidential records are processed and reviewed for access under provisions of the 1978 Presidential Records Act, as amended (PRA) (44 U.S.C. §§ 2201-2209), which incorporates the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. § 552) in substantial part.

We have completed processing approximately 70,464 pages and 42,049 electronic files of Bush Presidential records related to emails from Brett Kavanaugh, Brett Kavanaugh's White House Counsel's Office Subject Files, and records related to Brett Kavanaugh's service in the White House Counsel's Office from the White House Office of Records Management. The specific material you requested may be a subset of these records. Of this total, 24,352 pages and 23,273 electronic files have been exempted from release in whole or part in compliance with the restrictions of the PRA and applicable FOIA exemptions, which specify what material may be released to the public. The 24,352 pages and 23,273 electronic files restricted from access, in whole or in part, are listed along with the exemption categories below. Some pages and/or electronic files may be restricted under more than one category.

At this time, you have the right to file an administrative appeal of any George W. To appeal a FOIA exemption, the appeal must be submitted in writing to the attention of the Deputy Archivist of the United States, c/o the George W. Since these are Presidential records administered in accordance with 44 U.S.C. §§2201-2209, NARA must notify the former and incumbent Presidents prior to the release of any information in response to these appeals. Once an appeal determination is made and the notification period has passed, we will contact you.

Please note that 447 pages of material responsive to your request have been withheld pursuant to PRA restriction P1 and FOIA exemption (b)(1), (national security classified information). In order to facilitate our ability to more quickly seek a declassification review for those specific documents that are of interest to you, we are no longer referring all classified documents processed in response to your FOIA request to the originating and/or equity agencies for a current classification review. Based on the information provided on our withdrawal sheets, you can request under your existing FOIA or through the mandatory declassification review provisions of Executive Order 13526 a declassification review of those specific documents of interest to you.

The remaining pages are open for research. Due to the high public interest in these requests, responsive records are posted on our website as they become available; accordingly, no fees are required.
